

1. Terms & Conditions

This document focuses on preventing global users from unauthorized scraping or misuse of data.

Terms of Service

1. Acceptance of Terms

By accessing and using www.x-dic.com (the "Site"), you agree to be bound by these Terms and Conditions and all applicable laws and regulations. If you do not agree, please refrain from using our services.

2. Intellectual Property Rights

All content, including but not limited to dictionary entries, terminology data (comprising over 10 million records), and software code, is the exclusive property of X-DIC or its licensors. Unauthorized scraping, crawling, or automated extraction of data is strictly prohibited without prior written consent.

3. Use License

Permission is granted to temporarily view the information for personal, non-commercial transitory viewing only. This is the grant of a license, not a transfer of title.

4. Disclaimer of Liability

The materials on X-DIC are provided on an 'as is' basis. While we strive for accuracy across our vast database, X-DIC makes no warranties, expressed or implied, regarding the accuracy or reliability of the information provided.

5. Advertisements

The Site displays advertisements (e.g., Google AdSense) to provide free access to users. Depending on applicable law, user consent, and advertising settings, ads may be personalized or non-personalized.

2. Privacy Policy

This document includes notice of Google AdSense cookie and advertising practices and is intended to support transparency for users in different jurisdictions, including where privacy laws such as the GDPR or U.S. state privacy laws may apply.

1. Information Collection

We do not require registration to search our database. However, we may collect non-personally identifiable or technical information such as browser type, IP address, access times, and search activity for service optimization, analytics, security, and abuse prevention.

2. Use of Cookies and Third-Party Advertising

- We use cookies to enhance your experience, analyze site traffic, support service operation, and enable advertising.
- Third-party vendors, including Google, use cookies to serve ads based on a user's prior visits to this Site or other websites.
- Google's use of advertising cookies enables Google and its partners to serve ads to users based on their visits to this Site and/or other sites on the Internet.
- As a result of ad serving on the Site, third parties may place and read cookies on users' browsers or use web beacons, IP addresses, or other identifiers to collect information.
- Users may opt out of personalized advertising by visiting Google Ads Settings.
- For more information about how Google uses information from sites or apps that use its services, see How Google uses information from sites or apps that use our services.
- Where required by applicable law, the Site may provide a consent mechanism for cookies or personalized advertising.

3. Data Security

We implement reasonable technical and administrative security measures to protect the integrity of our database and user access logs.
